Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced the reappointment of Addie J. Key, of Maryland, to be a Member of the Board of Advisers of the Federal Reformatory for Women for a term of four years.

The Board consists of four citizens of the United States appointed by the President together with the Attorney General, the Director of the Bureau of Prisons and the Warden of the Federal Reformatory for Women. Members of the Board serve without compensation.

The purpose of the Board is to recommend ways and means for the discipline and training of the inmates, to fit them for suitable employment upon their parole or discharge.

Mrs. Key and her husband, Leon, reside in Baltimore, Maryland.
