

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SEPTEMBER 30, 1974

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced the appointment of ten persons to be Members of the National Commission for Manpower Policy. They are:

Eli Ginzberg, of New York City; Professor of Economics at Columbia University in New York City. Mr. Ginzberg is being named Chairman.

Rudolph Alva Cervantes, of Whittier, California; President of Rudy Cervantes Neckwear, Inc.

Dorothy Ford, of Whittier, California; Manager, Personnel and Employee Development, Southern California Edison.

John V.N. Klein, of St. James, New York; Suffolk County Executive.

Juanita Kreps, of Durham, North Carolina; Vice President and Professor of Economics, Duke University.

John H. Lyons, of Potomac, Maryland; President, Bridge, Structural, and Ornamental Iron Workers Union.

Tom Moody, Mayor of Columbus, Ohio.

John W. Porter, of East Lansing, Michigan; Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State of Michigan.

Milton L. Rock, of Cheltenham, Pennsylvania; Managing Partner of Hay Associates, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The Rev. Leon H. Sullivan, of Rydal, Pennsylvania, Pastor of Zion Baptist Church, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The total membership of the Commission is 17. In addition to the 11 members appointed by the President the following are ex-officio members: The Secretary of Labor, Secretary of HEW, Secretary of Defense, Secretary of Commerce, Secretary of Agriculture and the Administrator of Veterans Affairs.

The Commission was established by the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973, Public Law 93-203 of December 28, 1973. The purpose of the Commission is to identify the manpower goals and needs of the Nation and assess the extent to which employment and training, vocational education, institutional training, vocational rehabilitation, economic opportunity, and other programs under this and related Acts represent a consistent, integrated and coordinated approach to meeting such needs and achieving such goals. The Commission will report annually to the President and to the Congress its findings and recommendations.

#