

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OCTOBER 10, 1974

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced his intention to nominate five persons to be Representatives and three persons to be Alternate Representatives of the United States to the Eighteenth Session of the General Conference of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization. The UNESCO General Conference session will be held in Paris, France, from October 16 to November 18, 1974.

Representatives:

R. Miller Upton, of Beloit, Wisconsin; President, Beloit College in Beloit, Wisconsin.

William B. Jones, of Los Angeles, California; United States Permanent Representative to UNESCO.

Rosemary L. Ginn of Columbia, Missouri; President, Lucas Brothers Publishing Company.

E. Ross Adair, of Fort Wayne, Indiana; Associate in the law firm of Adair, Perry, Beers, McAlister and Mallers.

Gordon H. Scherer, of Cincinnati, Ohio; Attorney at Law, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Alternate Representatives:

Stephen Hess, of the District of Columbia; Senior Fellow, Brookings Institution.

William G. Harley, of the District of Columbia; President, National Association of Educational Broadcasters, Washington, D. C.

J. Roger Porter, of Iowa City, Iowa; Chairman, Microbiology Department, Department of Medicine, University of Iowa.

#