

October 18, 1974

Office of the White House Press Secretary

---

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

In today's briefing, Manolo and Fina Sanchez were described as being on leave without pay as of October 5, 1974. In checking out additional queries, it was learned today that the Sanchezes had signed the necessary papers earlier this week to resign from Government service, effective as of October 5, 1974.

For your use, ON DEEP BACKGROUND, the Sanchezes will remain in San Clemente on former President Nixon's personal staff.
