

November 19, 1974

Office of the White House Press Secretary
(Tokyo, Japan)

THE WHITE HOUSE

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

GIFTS FROM THE PRESIDENT TO:

The Emperor and Empress

Stueben (one of a kind) sculpture entitled: Forest Spires which consists of a 13 3/4 inch tall 3-sided prism engraved with pine and fir trees which reflect in multiples on the sides and create the illusion of a forest of trees. It was presented in a red leather presentation case.

In addition, the President gave a Presidential portrait in a silver frame with the Presidential seal on it.

The Crown Prince and Princess

Cybis porcelain sculpture of an American Buffalo amidst prairie grass mounted on walnut base with the Presidential seal in a walnut presentation case.

The Prince and Princess Mikasa

Bronze sculpture by Gregory Higgins of peregrine falcon with silver ornaments and agate eyes resting on a bronze tree branch and mounted on a green and red jadite base.

The Prime Minister

Antique 19th century round medallion of wood taken from Mt. Vernon, mounted with antique engraving of George Washington inset into white velvet matting and standing frame of gold leaf bordered in flag red and blue.

#

#

#