NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The American Freedom Train is a non-profit, non-commercial Bicentennial project, sponsored by the five corporations, each of which will contribute one million dollars. The firms are Atlantic Richfield Company, General Motors Corporation, Kraft Foods Division of Kraftco, Pepsico, Inc., and Prudential Insurance Company of America, Inc.

Revenues derived from ticket sales and donations also will be used to operate the train.

The Freedom Train consists of a steam powered locomotive and twenty-two cars which will travel to 76 cities throughout the United States in 1975 and 1976, displaying some of the nation's most treasured documents and artifacts.
