THE WHITE HOUSE

ROBERT A. GOLDWIN
Biographical Data

Robert A. Goldwin has been Special Consultant to the President since December 16, 1974. Dr. Goldwin works with the Domestic Council and others in the White House to help assure the flow of information, ideas, and suggestions to the President, especially from individuals outside the government.

Dr. Goldwin served as Special Advisor to Ambassador Rumsfeld in Brussels from March 1973 until his appointment. From 1969 to 1973, he was the Dean of St. John's College, a private non-denominational liberal arts college in Annapolis, Maryland. From 1960 to 1969, Dr. Goldwin taught political science and was the Director of the Public Affairs Conference Center, first at the University of Chicago and then at Kenyon College, in Ohio.

Dr. Goldwin is the author of articles on political philosophy and was named a Guggenheim Fellow in 1966 for his work on John Locke.

Dr. Goldwin was born in New York City on April 16, 1922. He graduated from St. John's College and received M. A. and Ph. D. degrees in political science from The University of Chicago. He served as an enlisted man and officer in the United States Cavalry in World War II. He is presently on leave of absence as the Charles Hammond Elliott Tutor of St. John's College in Annapolis.

He is married to the former Daisy Lateiner of New Rochelle, New York and they have four grown children. They reside in the District of Columbia.
