

The President left the White House approximately 9:20 p.m., had uneventful motorcade via Rock Creek Park to Washington Hilton to attend American Football Coaches Association dinner, ~~some~~ received the Tuss McLaughry award for "highest distinction in service to ~~others~~ others." The award has previously been presented to Neil Armstrong, Michael Collins, Edwin Aldrin astronauts among others, and according to brochure at dinner, "recognizes this summit of human accomplishment. President had only minor deviations from text. White House press office has text. Following speech President had picture taken with some of the coaches (pool did not see that). About one hundred people were waiting outside hotel ~~and~~ exit when President departed. A woman standing at front, ~~near~~ ^{NCAA} the ropes, started screaming: "fascist...fascist...fascist...fascist pig." She in high pitched voice: continued "how do you sleep at night....fascist...fascist...." She was hustled off; peolers did not know whether by secret service or local police. Pool had to take off, but wire service and presumably they have found out representatives remained behind, ~~approximately~~ what happened to her. woman believed in her thirties, wearing brown coat, ~~of~~ nothing outstanding about her appearance. ~~she~~

President ~~returned to the pool~~ throughout greeted people -- "hello, how are you," etc. President returned to White House at approximately 10:30 p.m., trip back by same route, also uneventful. (Pool soundman has sound of woman screaming ~~in~~ her epithets.)
