

jan 25 saturday 11 pm

at Alfalfa
President ~~xxxxxxx~~ Club, at the Statler Hilton.

President departed from ~~WH~~ WH at about 9.25.
To Hotel. And last we saw of him ^{then} was his ~~entering~~ ascending stairs to ~~the~~ reception hall. We were told later by one of agents that crowd was estimated at 650-- each member being allowed to invite up to four guests.
We were told President was welcomed by Frank Borman, outgoing President of Club, and Sen Humphrey, elected as President of Club at tonight's affair. Humphrey, in keeping with club tradition, proposed toast to President, and Humphrey ^{then} followed practice of club to call Alfalfa Club Political Party convention, at which Justice Potter Stewart nominated George Bush, US Rep in Peking, as the club's candidate for President. ^{of US} Some entertainment later, followed by the President, according to agent, scheduled to deliver five-minute address. ~~†~~ All above details--~~source~~ are from agent. President emerged about ten of 11, touched a few hands of a cheering crowd in lobby of hotel, and back to the WH at about 11.

kalb