THE WHITE HOUSE

EXCHANGE OF LETTERS BETWEEN
THE PRESIDENT AND
LAURENCE H. SILBERMAN,
DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL OF THE UNITED STATES

March 12, 1975

Dear Larry:

I have your letter of February 21, and it is with deepest regret that I accept your resignation as Deputy Attorney General, effective upon the appointment and qualification of your successor, as you requested.

In doing so, I want to take this opportunity to express my personal appreciation for your dedicated service to our Nation and to my Administration. Throughout your career in government, you have brought to each of your many challenging responsibilities great energy, skill and high professional integrity. I have had many occasions, particularly during this past difficult period of transition, to admire these qualities and to seek your valued counsel. Your devotion to the proper administration of justice throughout our land, and your significant contributions to the operations of the Department of Justice have earned the gratitude of all your fellow citizens and my own deep respect.

Betty joins me in extending to Ricki and you our warmest good wishes for the future.

Sincerely,

JERRY FORD

The Honorable Laurence H. Silberman
Deputy Attorney General
Washington, D. C.

The Honorable Gerald R. Ford
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

My dear Mr. President:

I herewith tender my resignation, effective upon the appointment of my successor.

It is always a privilege to serve the President of the United States in any capacity but I have been particularly fortunate to have worked in your Administration. Your candor, decency and leadership have created an atmosphere throughout government which is vitally important to our Nation in these critical times.

I wish you and Mrs. Ford every continued success and happiness.

Respectfully,

LAURENCE H. SILBERMAN
Deputy Attorney General
