

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MARCH 25, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

STATEMENT BY THE PRESS SECRETARY

The President is sending the Vice President to Saudi Arabia as his Personal Representative to convey the deep sympathy of the American people to His Majesty, King Khalid, over the loss of His Majesty, King Faisal. The Vice President will be carrying a personal message from the President to King Khalid expressing his condolences on the death of this great leader and his confidence that the bonds of friendship which have been forged between Saudi Arabia and the United States will endure. The Vice President is scheduled to depart Washington late this evening.
