POOL REPORT

Residence to Mission Hills Country Club

The President left the residence at 9:45 a. m. for uneventful 10-minute drive to Mission Hills Country Club in Rancho Mirage, home of the Dinah Shore Golf Tourney for Women which starts next week.

On arriving at clubhouse, the President, in red golf shirt and plaid pants, received a mahogany desk set, a letter opener and a lifetime pass to the Mission Hills course. Presentation was made by Max Genet, General Manager and (according to a phone company official), an ex-Lieutenant Governor of Oklahoma.

President then went inside, and pool left. He is to play 18 holes with Leon Parma, former California Congressman Jack Westland from Pebble Beach area, and Darius Keaton, a friend of Westland and businessman from Pebble Beach area.
