THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced his intention to nominate two persons to be members of the Board of Directors of the Communications Satellite Corporation. They are:

George Meany of Bethesda, Maryland, President of the AFL-CIO, until the date of the annual meeting of the Corporation in 1978; he previously served as a member until 1972.

Frederic G. Donner of Port Washington, New York, former Chairman of the Board of the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation and former Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of General Motors Corporation, until the date of the annual meeting in 1977. This is a reappointment.

The Board of Directors of the Communications Satellite Corporation consists of a total of 15 members, as follows:

3 Members appointed for terms of three years by the President of the United States

6 Members elected annually by the stockholders who are communications common carriers

6 Members elected annually by the other stockholders of the corporation

The Commission was established by Public Law 87-624 of August 31, 1962.
