

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

April 11, 1975

The Speaker

of the House of Representatives

Sir:

I ask the Congress to consider requests for supplemental appropriations totaling $17,559,099 for the fiscal year 1975, budget amendments totaling $632,540 for the fiscal year 1976, and a budget amendment for the period July 1, 1976, through September 30, 1976, in the amount of $114,000 for the legislative branch.

The details of these proposals are set forth in the enclosed letters from the Clerk of the U.S. Senate, the Clerk of the U.S. House of Representatives, the Architect of the Capitol, the Acting Librarian of the Congress, and the attached appropriation language. As required by law, these requests are submitted without change.

Respectfully,

THE LIBRARIAN OF CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20540

February 7, 1975.

Dear Mr. Ash:

Public Law 93-573 which establishes the National Commission on New Technological Uses of Copyrighted Works in the Library of Congress was enacted on December 31, 1974. Since this legislation was enacted after submission of our regular fiscal year 1976 budget request to the Office of Management and Budget, we are forwarding herewith the estimates for this new effort for consideration along with our regular 1976 Library of Congress budget request.

By separate correspondence to Miss Jane Finn, Office of the General Counsel, Office of Management and Budget, we have requested that Public Law 93-573 be amended to extend the authorization from June 30, 1976, to September 30, 1976, in order to cover the fiscal 1976 transition quarter.

Sincerely yours,

John G. Lorenz
Acting Librarian of Congress
