

April 25, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced the appointment of Charles H. Meacham, of Juneau, Alaska, to be Deputy United States Commissioner on the North Pacific Fur Seal Commission. He succeeds Clarence A. Weberg whose resignation was effective March 25, 1974.

The purpose of the Commission is the conservation of fur seals in the North Pacific Ocean.

#