NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced his intention to nominate Isabel A. Burgess, of Phoenix, Arizona, to be a member of the National Transportation Safety Board for a term expiring December 31, 1979. She was appointed to the Board on October 7, 1969 for a term which expired December 31, 1974.

Mrs. Burgess was a member of the Arizona State House of Representatives for ten years. She was elected to the Arizona State Senate in 1966 until her appointment to the National Transportation Safety Board in 1969.

The National Transportation Safety Board investigates United States civil aviation accidents, except investigations which are delegated by the Board to the Federal Aviation Administration; determines accident cause and reports the facts and circumstances in all aviation accidents; conducts special studies and makes recommendations on matters pertaining to aviation safety and aviation accident prevention.

The National Transportation Safety Board consists of five members.
