NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced the appointment of Arch A. Moore, Jr., Governor of West Virginia, as his Personal Representative at the Opening of the Franklin Jefferson Exhibit in Warsaw, Poland on May 17.

Governor Moore was elected Governor of West Virginia in 1968 and reelected in 1972. An attorney, he previously served in the West Virginia House of Delegates.

The Franklin Jefferson Exhibit is a travelling exhibit organized by the American Revolution Bicentennial Administration. It has been displayed in Paris and will be displayed in London after the Warsaw exhibition.
