POOL REPORT #15

Meeting with Prime Minister
Pierre Elliot Trudeau

The President and Trudeau filed into the Secretary General's Conference Room at about 2:15 p.m. Present at the meeting and left to right in the photos were: John Halstead, Deputy Under Secretary for External Affairs; Ivan Head, Special Adviser to the Prime Minister for Foreign Affairs; Alan MacEachen, Secretary of State for External Affairs; Trudeau; Ford and Brent Scowcroft, Deputy Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs.

The President wore a blue striped suit and black shoes with tassels. Trudeau wore a beige suit which matched the curtains and a red rose. The President and Trudeau spoke in whispers each rubbing the palms of his hands. The only thing that could be overheard was Ford saying that something had "limited applications" and that something else was "very complimentary". Secretary of State Henry Kissinger did not attend the meeting.

When asked where Kissinger was, White House official said he didn't know. He had some appointment.
