

JUNE 2, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary
(Salzburg, Austria)

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President awoke at 8:45 a.m. after a good night's sleep. He was well rested.

He read his morning intelligence summary and the news summaries sent from Washington, and the only English language paper available, the Sunday Stars and Stripes.

The President ate breakfast with Mrs. Ford finishing about 10:00 a.m. He spent the rest of the morning going over official papers and preparing for his meeting with President Sadat.
