THE WHITE HOUSE

The White House today announced the designation of William F. Gorog as Deputy Director for Domestic Economic Policy, Economic Policy Board. Mr. Gorog, formerly chairman and chief executive officer of Mead Technology Laboratories, Dayton, Ohio, a subsidiary of the Mead Corporation, will serve as a deputy to L. William Seidman, Assistant to the President for Economic Affairs.

Mr. Gorog was one of the founders of Mead Technology Laboratories in 1956. The company, originally known as Data Corporation, merged with Mead Corporation in 1968. He contributed to the development and introduction of the computerized legal research system known as LEXIS, which is now in use by law firms and courts throughout the country.

A 1949 graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, Mr. Gorog holds an M.S. degree in Industrial Engineering from Ohio State University. After a five-year tour of duty in the Air Force during which he served at Wright Air Development Center in Dayton, Ohio, in Korea, and with Allied Air Forces Central Europe in France, he began his business career as assistant director of the camera division of the Bulova Watch Company in New York, New York.

Mr. Gorog was born on September 2, 1925, in Warren, Ohio, and is married to the former Gretchen Elizabeth Meister. The couple, who currently reside in Dayton, has six children.
