

JUNE 17, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary

---

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President has accepted the resignations of four persons as members of the Commission on Presidential Scholars. They were appointed on April 28, 1969. They are:

Malcolm Moos, of Santa Barbara, California, effective on June 17, 1975.

Dr. T.W. Cole, Sr., of Gainesville, Florida, effective on June 17, 1975.

Kenneth E. Mosier, of San Francisco, California, effective on June 17, 1975.

George W. Hohl, of Ames, Iowa, effective on June 17, 1975.

The Commission was established to choose Presidential Scholars annually from among persons about to be graduated from public or private secondary schools.
