

JUL 1, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The following information was made available by the Press Office on Tuesday, July 1, 1975:

1. Schedule for Tuesday, July 1, 1975; Travel pool for the 66th Annual Convention of the NAACP, 10:30 a.m.; and for the Swearing-in of Dr. Theodore Cooper as Assistant Secretary of HEW, and Dr. Donald Fredrickson as Director of NIH. (POSTING)
2. Details on President's schedule for today; details on two morning postings; further information on the President's trip to Baltimore July 4th; Announcement of the President's trip to Traverse City, Michigan and Chicago, Illinois July 11-13. (POSTING)
3. Advance text of the President's remarks to be delivered to the 66th Annual Convention of the NAACP. (RELEASE)
4. As delivered remarks by the President to the 66th Annual Convention of the NAACP. (RELEASE)
5. As delivered remarks by the President at the Swearing-in of Drs. Ted Cooper and Donald Fredrickson at NIH. (RELEASE)
6. Signing of H. R. 7709 -- Duty suspension of certain istle; temporary postponement of new child support provisions in Social Security Act. Signing of H. R. 8030 -- Temporary increase in public debt limit. (POSTING)
7. Message to Congress proposing three rescissions and report twenty-seven deferrals in accordance with the Impoundment Control Act of 1974. (RELEASE, SUMMARY OF PROPOSED RESCISSIONS AND DEFERRALS AVAILABLE IN THE PRESS OFFICE.)
8. Joint Resolution approving the Convenant to Establish a Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands in Political Union with the United States of America. (AVAILABLE IN THE PRESS OFFICE)