

JULY 2, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The Schedule

The President arrived at the Oval Office at 7:40 a.m. today and met with members of his staff.

At 9:00 a.m. he held an Energy Meeting to review the current energy situation and the status of the President's legislative proposals. Participants included Secretary Morton, Administrator Zarb, William Seidman, Alan Greenspan, Secretary Simon, Jim Cannon, Jim Lynn, Jack Marsh, Max Friedersdorf, and Dick Cheney.

At 11:00 a.m. the President will meet with former Senator J. William Fulbright, who returned June 20 from a two week trip to the Middle East. This was an opportunity for the President to hear the views of Senator Fulbright in regard to the situation in this area.

At 12:00 noon the President will hold a meeting to discuss the current budget outlook and the 1977 budget planning figures. Scheduled to attend are Secretary Simon, Alan Greenspan, Paul McAvoy, William Seidman, Jim Cannon, Don Rumsfeld, Jim Lynn, Paul O'Neill and Dale McOmber.

At 1:45 p.m., the President will sign H. R. 5398, the Emergency Housing Act, in a Rose Garden ceremony. There will be open coverage.

At 2:30 p.m. the President will hold a meeting to discuss "work and education" proposals from the Departments of Health, Education, and Welfare; Labor and Commerce. These Departments were asked, following the President's speech at Ohio State University in August, 1974, to develop proposals for better relating education received in school with the world of work. Participants are scheduled to be Secretaries Weinberger, Morton and Dunlop, James Lynn, Robert Goldwin and Jim Cannon.
