THE WHITE HOUSE

REMARKS OF THE PRESIDENT
AT THE
WALTER HAGAN INVITATIONAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

TRAVERSE CITY GOLF AND COUNTRY CLUB

7:15 P.M. EDT

Let me thank all of you for the opportunity of coming up and playing in the Walter Hagan golf tournament and to have the opportunity of being in Traverse City.

It was a wonderful day yesterday, and it is wonderful to be back this evening. I just wish that my score had been better. It is too high. (Laughter)

But I had a lot of fun with good people, and I am delighted to be here with Bob Griffin today, and Bol and Governor Milliken yesterday, and all the fine people who are here from the region, as well as elsewhere.

It is very refreshing to come up to God's country. It is a wonderful place, not only in the summer, like now, but, as many of you know, we used to ski over at Boyne Mountain in the Northern area up here.

It is just a charming, delightful place, with superb people, and you have been nice to Betty and me, and we will try to come back, if you will have us.

Thank you very much.
