

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JULY 22, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced his intention to nominate John Holliday Holloman, III, of Jackson, Mississippi, to be a member of the Federal Power Commission. He will succeed Rush Moody, Jr., who resigned effective March 15, 1975.

Since 1973, Mr. Holloman has been a partner in the firm of Jolly, Holloman & Miller of Jackson, Mississippi. He was Chief Counsel and Staff Director of the United States Senate Judiciary Committee from 1967 to 1973, after having served on the legal staff beginning in 1964. From 1961 to 1964, he was a partner in the law firm of Holloman & Holloman of Columbus, Mississippi. Beginning in 1960 until 1964, he was a member of the House of Representatives representing Lowndes County in Mississippi.

Mr. Holloman was born on March 5, 1937, in Columbus, Mississippi, and received his B.A. degree from the University of Mississippi in 1959. He received his LL. B. degree from the University of Mississippi in 1961.

Mr. Holloman is married to the former Ann Scales Klaus and they have two children.
