This proposed amendment will provide for the payment of $3,000,000 ex gratia to the people of Bikini Atoll in the Marshall Islands, Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands. The payment is for the hardship they have endured from 1946 to the present time as a result of having been relocated from Bikini to other islands so that Bikini could be used for U.S. atomic testing. The legislation authorizing this payment was signed on June 13, 1975 (P.L. 94-34).
