

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JULY 27, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary
(Bonh, Germany)

THE WHITE HOUSE

STATEMENT BY THE PRESS SECRETARY

The President is very pleased by Senator Mansfield's remarks, made on the Senate Floor, calling on the House of Representatives to reverse its decision continuing the ban on arms sales to Turkey.

As the President made clear in his statement yesterday, it is in America's national interest to find a way to reverse the unfortunate action by the House of Representatives continuing the cut-off of arms sales to this long-time ally and eastern anchor of the Atlantic Alliance.

NOTE:

This statement was issued by the White House Press Office in Washington, D. C.
