(INCLUDING TRANSLATION)

THE U.S. EMBASSY RESIDENCE

11:40 A.M. (Helsinki Time)

QUESTION: Mr. Secretary, what were your talks about?

GENERAL SECRETARY BREZHNEV: Our relations with America. You know, we have different kinds of relations -- commercial, political. We centered our attention on the questions of strategic disarmament. We had very little time, so we had not enough time to finish the talks.

On the whole, our talks took place in a business-like, friendly atmosphere.

QUESTION: Mr. President, what were you talking with the General Secretary?

THE PRESIDENT: I felt the bilateral discussions, the discussions concerning strategic arms limitation, the total atmosphere, was very constructive. It was business-like, very friendly, and I am sure that when we meet again on Saturday further progress will materialize.

QUESTION: Mr. General Secretary, you seem to be in an unusually good mood. Are you pleased to see the Security Conference beginning today?

GENERAL SECRETARY BREZHNEV: What do you think?

QUESTION: What do you think this Conference will accomplish for the world?

GENERAL SECRETARY BREZHNEV: What would you like it to accomplish, madam?

MORE

QUESTION: I asked you the question. It is not fair to turn the question around.

GENERAL SECRETARY BREZHNEV: I want peace and tranquility to reign in Europe. I want all the nations of Europe to live at peace with each other, not to interfere in each other's domestic affairs where the sovereignty of each nation of Europe is assured. Is that a little achievement?

QUESTION: You think there will be no interference with borders after this?

GENERAL SECRETARY BREZHNEV: I think so, yes.

QUESTION: Mr. President, what are you wanting from this Helsinki Conference?

THE PRESIDENT: I believe that the peace in Europe will be enhanced. I believe that the overall peace of the world will be encouraged and broadened, and it is my judgment that progress will be the net result.

THE PRESS: Thank you, Mr. President.
