POOL REPORT #12 - Travel Pool Back to President's Residence from the Dinner

The President emerged from the Palace at 12:11 a.m. After uneventful seven minute ride, he was home safe and sound with some members of the official party grumbling in disbelief about the one hour toast by the Romanian President.

The two Presidents chatted for about 10 seconds in front of the Palace before the Fords departed. It is believed that Mr. Ceausescu's toast did not come up in the farewell greetings.
