

August 2, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary
(Bucharest, Romania)

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The meeting between the U. S. and Romanian leaders ended at 8:10 p. m. lasting approximately 65 minutes. Participating for the U. S. was Secretary of State Kissinger and Ambassador Barnes. Participating for Romania, in addition to the President, were Prime Minister Manea Manescu and Foreign Minister, George Macovescu.

The two sides reviewed the European situation, following the Security Conference in Helsinki, and bilateral relations, including economic and trade matters. The meeting was described as very cordial and friendly.
