

SEPTEMBER 10, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President's Schedule

The President arrived at the Oval Office at 7:40 a. m. today and held meetings with members of his staff until 9:00 a. m.

He greeted leaders of the U. S. Jaycees in the Rose Garden at 9:00 a. m. The group included State Presidents and Executive Committee Chairmen, a total of 88 Jaycees who toured the White House prior to meeting with the President. The new national Jaycee President is Dick Robinson of Lake Orion, Michigan.

The President continues meetings with his staff until 11:30 a. m., then he will hold a meeting with four Cabinet members and four university presidents. The subject will be the federal role in insuring there is no discrimination in employment in federally-funded colleges and universities. Attending will be Secretaries Coleman, Dunlop, Mathews, and Attorney General Levi, along with Dr. Kenneth J. Arrow of Harvard, Dr. Cynthia Epstein of Queens College, City University of New York, Dr. Paul Seabury, University of California (Berkeley), and Dr. Thomas Sowell, University of California (Los Angeles).

At 3:00 p. m., the President will meet with Secretary General Joseph M. A. H. Luns of NATO in the Oval Office.

Announcements

The Press Office is making available the following announcements:

1. A proclamation designating Monday, October 13 as Columbus Day. (Release)
2. A proclamation designating Monday, October 27 as Veterans Day. (Release)
3. A Message to Congress reporting three new deferrals under the Impoundment Control Act of 1974. (Release)
4. The appointment of three persons as members of the National Armed Forces Museum Advisory Board of the Smithsonian Institution. (Release)

5. The President today is transmitting to the Congress the 1974 Annual Report of the Federal Prevailing Rate Advisory Committee. (Reports available in the press office)

6. The President has designated his personal representatives and representatives to attend the ceremonies incident to the independence of the Government of Papua New Guinea. (Posting)

#