

SEPTEMBER 10, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary

---

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced the appointment of three persons as members of the National Armed Forces Museum Advisory Board of the Smithsonian Institution. They are:

Lieutenant General Leo J. Dulacki, USMC, Retired, of Carlsbad, California, for the remainder of a term expiring April 9, 1976. He succeeds Lieutenant General Milton C. Baker who resigned effective May 1, 1975.

Fred L. Dixon, of the District of Columbia, Vice President, Folger, Nolan, Fleming and Douglas, Inc. (Investment Banking), Washington, D.C., for a term expiring April 9, 1980. He succeeds Robert C. Baker whose term has expired.

Theodore Ropp, of Durham, North Carolina, Professor of History, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina, for a term expiring April 9, 1980. He succeeds Earl Warren whose term expired shortly before his death.

The Board consists of two ex-officio members, the Secretary of Defense and the Secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, and nine members appointed by the President. Of these nine members, 3 shall be persons recommended by the Secretary of Defense, 2 shall be from persons recommended by the Regents of the Smithsonian Institution, and of the other remaining 4 members, at least 2 members shall be from civilian life.

Members serve terms of 6 years.