

SEPTEMBER 16, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced his intention to nominate six persons to be Representative and Alternate Representatives of the United States of America to the Nineteenth Session of the International Atomic Energy Agency.

The Representative is:

Robert C. Seamans, Jr., of Beverly Farms, Massachusetts, Administrator, Energy Research and Development Administration.

The Alternate Representatives are:

Richard T. Kennedy, of the District of Columbia, Commissioner, Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

Myron B. Kratzer, of the District of Columbia, Acting Assistant Secretary of State for Oceans and International Environmental and Scientific Affairs.

Marcus A. Rowden, of Maryland, member, Nuclear Regulatory Commission.

Nelson F. Sievering, Jr., of Maryland, Assistant Administrator for International Affairs, Energy Research and Development Administration.

Gérald F. Tape, of Maryland, United States Representative to the International Atomic Energy Agency.

The Session will be held at Vienna, Austria, September 22 through 29, 1975.

#