

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SEPTEMBER 26, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT

Bob Considine was a great reporter -- whose beat was literally the world. His perceptive reporting and the quality of his writing made him a great newsman. His personal integrity and courage, his gentle good humor and his outstanding character made him a great person. He will be missed.

Mrs. Ford joins in this expression of sympathy to Bob's wife, Millie, and to his family. In words Bob was fond of quoting: "May the angels lead thee into paradise and may the martyrs receive thee at thy coming."
