

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OCTOBER 10, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

STATEMENT BY THE PRESS SECRETARY

The Heads of State or Government of the Federal Republic of Germany, France, Italy, Japan, the United Kingdom and the United States will meet on November 15, 16, 17, 1975, in France to discuss economic issues of mutual interest, including promotion of recovery in the world economy, trade and monetary policy, developments in energy and other raw material markets; and relations with other developed and developing nations. This meeting will permit an informal and intensive exchange of views on common problems, possibilities for resolving them, and opportunities to enhance constructive cooperation.

The six leaders recognize the importance their economies have to one another and to the rest of the world. They believe that they have a responsibility to consult with one another on achieving stable growth for their own countries and, in cooperation with other nations, greater global prosperity and improvements in the working of the international economy. It is in this spirit that they will convene for these discussions.
