

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OCTOBER 20, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced his intention to nominate Charles W. Halleck of Gaithersburg, Maryland to be an Associate Judge of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia for a term of fifteen years. Judge Halleck has been serving on the Superior Court since his appointment in 1965.

From 1959 to 1965, he was associated with the law firm of Hogan and Hartson of Washington, D.C. From 1957 to 1959, he was Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Columbia.

Judge Halleck was born on July 6, 1929, in Rensselaer, Indiana. He received his A.B. degree from Williams College in Williamstown, Massachusetts in 1951 and his J.D. degree in 1957 from The George Washington University, Washington, D.C.

Judge Halleck is married and has seven children.
