

NOVEMBER 26, 1975

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President has accepted the resignation of Lewis Engman, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, as Chairman of the Federal Trade Commission effective December 31, 1975. He was appointed in February 8, 1973 for a term expiring September 25, 1976.

Prior to coming to Washington, D.C., Mr. Engman was associated with the law firm of Warner, Norcross and Judd from 1961 to 1970. He was a partner in the firm from 1965 to 1970.

Mr. Engman was born in Grand Rapids on January 6, 1936 and is married to the former Jacqueline Ransford Graham. They have three sons and reside in McLean, Virginia.

#