

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JANUARY 2, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced his intention to nominate Galen L. Stone, of the District of Columbia, to be Deputy United States Representative to the International Atomic Energy Agency. He will succeed Dwight J. Porter who has resigned.

In May, 1975, Mr. Stone was nominated to the position of Ambassador to Laos, but did not assume the post. Prior to his nomination, he was Deputy Chief of Mission, Paris, France. From 1969 to 1973, he was Deputy Chief of Mission in New Dehli. During 1968 to 1969, he was Political Counselor in Saigon. From 1965 to 1968, he was Special Assistant, Counselor of Political-Economic Affairs, New Dehli. He was Deputy Director, Office of West European Affairs from 1962 to 1963, after having served as Officer in Charge of Swiss-Benelux Affairs during 1961 to 1962. He was a Personnel Officer in 1958 and later became a Supervisory Placement Specialist, serving until 1961.

After joining the Foreign Service in 1947, Mr. Stone was assigned as an Economic Officer in Munich. He served from 1950 to 1954 as an Economic Officer in Kiel and later was assigned as Political Officer in Paris for SHAPE.

Mr. Stone was born on July 4, 1921, in Brookline, Massachusetts. He received his B. A. degree from Harvard University in 1946. He served with the United States Army as a Captain from 1942 to 1945.

Mr. Stone is married to the former Anne Brewer and they have five children.
