

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JANUARY 20, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced his intention to nominate Albert B. Fay, of Houston, Texas, to be Ambassador to Trinidad and Tobago. He will succeed Lloyd I. Miller who has resigned.

Born on February 26, 1913, in New Orleans, Louisiana, Mr. Fay received his B.S. degree from Yale University in 1936. He was a Lieutenant in the United States Navy from 1943 to 1945. He was in the U.S. Naval Reserve as a Lieutenant Commander from 1936 to 1956.

Since 1937, Mr. Fay has been involved in ranching, farming and real estate. He has served on the boards of several companies in Texas and Louisiana.

Mr. Fay is married to the former Homoiselle Haden and they have three children.
