THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced the appointment of Stephen G. McConahey, of Vienna, Virginia, as Special Assistant to the President for Intergovernmental Affairs. He has been Associate Director for Transportation on the Domestic Council since September, 1975.

Mr. McConahey was born on November 8, 1943, in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin. He received his B.A. degree in 1966 from the University of Wisconsin and his M.B.A. from Harvard Business School in 1968.

In August, 1968, Mr. McConahey joined McKinsey and Company, Inc. where he was a management consultant to private, Federal, State and local organizations. He was selected as a White House Fellow in November, 1972. He became a member of the Executive Staff of the Urban Mass Transportation Administration in November, 1973.

Mr. McConahey is married to the former Kathleen Litten and they have one child.
