

March 29, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

---

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced his intention to nominate two persons to be members of the United States Advisory Commission on International Educational and Cultural Affairs for terms expiring May 11, 1978. They are:

Dortch Oldham, of Nashville, Tennessee, retired President, The Southwestern Company, Nashville, Tennessee. He succeeds Lawrence Y. Goldberg whose term has expired.

Beryl B. Milburn, of Austin, Texas. She succeeds David R. Derge whose term has expired.

The Commission consists of nine members appointed by the President and serving terms of three years.

The main functions of the Commission are to appraise the educational and cultural programs of the United States Government and give the President advice and guidance concerning these programs.

# #