

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

APRIL 22, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

---

THE WHITE HOUSE

The President today announced the appointment of nine persons as members of the President's Commission on Personnel Interchange for terms of two years. They are:

Walter W. Barto, Jr., of Meadowbrook, Pennsylvania, Vice President, Corporate Affairs, SmithKline Corporation, Meadowbrook, Pennsylvania.

Douglas P. Bennett, of Bethesda, Maryland, Director, Presidential Personnel Office, The White House.

Robert E. Davis, of Yardley, Pennsylvania, President and Chief Executive Officer, Thiokol Corporation, Bristol, Pennsylvania.

Edwin L. Harper, of Villa Nova, Pennsylvania, Vice President, Chief Administrative Officer, Certain-Teed Products Corporation, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

William N. Letson, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary, Westinghouse Electric Corporation, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

James P. Low, of McLean, Virginia, President, American Society of Association Executives, Washington, D. C.

James Roosevelt, of Corona Del Mar, California, President, James Roosevelt & Company; Lecturer in Social Ecology at the University of California at Irvine, Beverly Hills, California.

C. Maxwell Stanley, of Muscatine, Iowa, Chairman of the Board, Stanley Consultants, Inc., Muscatine, Iowa.

Jack K. Williams, of College Station, Texas, President, Texas A & M University and University System, College Station, Texas.

The purpose of the Commission is to develop an Executive Interchange Program in order to provide closer cooperation between the Government and the private sector. They also advise the President as to ways of promoting the interchange between the Government and the private sector.

# #