

MAY 5, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced the appointment of Daniel L. Horowitz, of Maplewood, New Jersey, as United States Representative on the Governing Body of the International Labor Office. He succeeds Edward B. Persons who resigned effective March 15, 1976.

The Governing Body is the executive council of the International Labor Organization. The purpose of the ILO is to improve labor conditions, raise living standards, and promote economic and social stability as the foundation for lasting peace throughout the world.
