Reception with PFC Volunteers

Hilton Inn - Laguna Hills

May 24, 1976

The President met with about 200 PFC phone bank workers. He mingled and chatted with the volunteers but made no remarks.

As he left the hotel, he was greeted by a large elephant from Lion Country Safari named Ginny, decked out in a red blanket. He talked briefly with the trainer and patted the elephant on the head before getting into the car for the trip to Anaheim.

There was no crowd outside the hotel when he arrived in Anaheim.
