

JUNE 3, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President will make a statement in the briefing room this morning at 11:00 a.m. The President's statement will be available for film and sound.

At 12 noon there will be a briefing in EOB-450 on the Economic Summit meeting in Puerto Rico by Secretary Kissinger, Secretary Simon and Economics Adviser Alan Greenspan. The briefing will be on the record --- NOT available for film and sound. White House passholders should use the 17th Street entrance. Those without White House passes who wish to attend should call Gail Campbell at 456-2100 for clearance. Additional background material will be available in the Press Room about 11 a.m., embargoed for release until 12 noon.

Because of the heavy schedule through the noon hour, Press Secretary Ron Nessen does not plan to hold a briefing today, but we will be posting any announcements at 10:00 a.m. and/or 3:30 p.m.
