

JUNE 18, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President announced his intention Cecil F. Poole, of San Francisco, California, to be United States District Judge for the Northern District of California. He will succeed Oliver J. Carter who retired effective April 7, 1976.

Since 1970, Mr. Poole has been Regents Professor of Law at the University of California.

A biographical sketch is attached.

#

CECIL F. POOLE

Born: July 25, 1914 Birmingham, Alabama

Legal Residence: California

Marital Status: Married Wife--Charlotte Crump; 2 children

Education: 1932-1935 University of Michigan
A.B. "with distinction"

1935-1938 University of Michigan Law School
LL.B. degree

1938-1939 Harvard Law School; LL.M. degree

Bar: 1940 Pennsylvania
1946 California

Military Service: 1942-1945 Air Force; 2nd Lieutenant

Experience: 1940-1942 Brown & Jones, Pittsburgh, Pa.
1942 National Labor Relations Board
1946-1947 Office of Price Administration
1947-1949 Private Practice, San Francisco
1949-1958 Assistant District Attorney
City & County of San Francisco
1952-1958 Instructor, Golden Gate University
1958-1961 Clemency & Extradition Secretary &
Legal Counsel to Governor of Calif.
1961-1970 United States Attorney
Northern District of California
1970-1971 Regents Professor of Law
University of California
1970 to present Jacobs, Sills & Coblenz

Office: 555 California Street, Suite 3100
San Francisco, California 94104
Telephone: 415-391-4800

Home: 90 Cedro Way, San Francisco, California 94127

Political Affiliation: Democrat Ethnic Group: Black