DORADO BEACH HOTEL POOL REPORT #2 (continued)

Economic Summit Meeting, June 26, 1976. Prime Minister Aldo Moro arrived by helicopter from Puerto Rico International Airport, touching down on the improvised helipad between the palms and sand bunkers of the 18th fairway of the west course of the Dorado Beach Hotel at 3:24 p.m. Moro and his party including Foreign Minister Rumor and Finance Minister Colombo, were greeted with a handshake and a few private words by President Gerald Ford, Treasury Secretary Simon, and Brent Scowcroft, Assistant to the President of National Security Affairs. The President escorted Moro to his villa and returned to his own.

Pool report by Thomas, Levine, Jones.
