PRESS POCL REPORT #5 (DCRADO BEACH) --ADD.#2

Secretary at the Treasury, William Simon, wearing a black pin-stripe suit, white shirt and tie, held a 15 minute news conference following the luncheon session of the Summit meeting, covering subjects ranging from the problem of inflation, potential new temporary financial aid for countries such as Italy, East-West credit issues, energy, commodity and developing aid as well as several other subjects. Simon had no statement, merely responding to questions.

A tape of the briefing will be played at the White House Press Center.
