

July 5, 1976

POOLREPORT #1

On departure' from the speech site' the President stopped briefly at Jefferson's Tomb. The President moved up the stairs to the tomb by himself and paused for a brief period of time paying his respects before he was joined by Governor Mills Godwin, Senator Harry Byrd, and ARBA Administrator John Warner. They paid their respects as a group and paused in conversation for about 5 minutes prior to departure en route the President's helicopter. Marine One lifted off at 12:30 p.m. without incident.

Doug Blaser

#