

JULY 8, 1976

Office of the White House Press Secretary

---

NOTICE TO THE PRESS

The President today announced the appointment of Kenneth A. Riggs, of Merced, California, to be a member of the Interagency Committee on Emergency Medical Services for a term expiring September 29, 1979. He will succeed Peter Safar whose term has expired.

The Committee was established by the Emergency Medical Services System Act of November 16, 1973, and in addition the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, or his designee, who serves as Chairman.

###